Foreword

An annual is the pictorial record of special moments; moments of exhilerated excitement at a football game, of intellectual fatigue near semester exams, of careless freedom at 3:45 Friday, and of satisfaction at the award's assembly.

We, the staff of this Vigilante, hope we have included the important and eliminated the unnecessary.

We feel the beauty of our state has been an intrinsic part in the development of our character; that the ephemeral moods and expressions of our land have become a personal possession for each of us. For this reason we have chosen "Montana" as our theme.

"Mighty, Majestic, Magnetically Appealing," a poem by George W. McVey, excellently pictures the scenic wonders one wishes to remember. This quality has made us choose this writing as the basis of our theme.

THE 1961 VIGILANTE STAFF

"In Dedication"

This year's annual is dedicated to a man everyone who attends Helena High knows . . . Chuck Johnson, past Math and Chemistry teacher, Frosh coach, Intramural director, present assistant principal, and friend of all. Mr. Johnson has spent much of his life as a school official or teacher and has enjoyed his work. Anyone who has any sort of problem can usually be found seeking the consolation of Mr. Johnson. So it is that we of the Vigilante staff dedicate this 1961 Annual to a man we greatly admire.

MIGHTY, MAJESTIC,

It's one of the biggest copper piles, it's one of the biggest lumber piles.

It's a million sacks of sugar.

It's potentially the biggest hydroelectric powerhouse in the world.

It's a silver dollar.

It's one state west of the divide and one state east of the divide, with enough material left over to make a third state.

Montana is Robber's Roost; it's Vigilantes hanging Henry Plummer.

It's a million Christmas trees.

It's Custer's last stand.

Montana is Lewis and Clark and Sacajawea.

It's the world's largest spring from which flows the mighty Missouri and turbulent Columbia.

Montana is Fort Peck, the largest earth-fill dam in the world.

It's a cattle ranch with the front gate thirty miles from the front porch.

It's a rodeo; it's a dude ranch.

It's Old Faithful, it's Gunsight Peak, it's Going-to-the-Sun Highway.

Montana is Charley Russell.

It's the Richest Hill on earth; it's Last Chance Gulch.

It's a fifty-thousand mile trout stream.

Montana is Marcus Daly looking into the earth and seeing billions of dollars in copper.

MAGNETICALLY APPEALING . . .

Montana is Big Hole Basin with ten thousand haystacks.

Montana is a jewel-like mountain lake.

Montana is a miner, a cowboy, a lumberjack, a farmer, a dude rancher, an Indian, a cattle baron, a Vigilante, a road agent, a fur trapper, a banker, an oil driller, an engineer, an artist, a soldier, a millionaire.

Montana is a pine tree; Montana is a fat steer.

Montana is a gold mine, a silver mine, a copper mine, a zinc mine, a manganese mine, a lead mine.

Montana is a ghost town.

It's Grasshopper Glacier, it's Yellowstone Park, it's Glacier Park.

Montana is a church spire. It's a school. It's a boy with a dog and a fishing rod.

Montana is a scenic wonder; it's a volcano, it's a geyser, it's Hell cooled off.

It's a cherry tree, an apple tree, a potato, a mustard seed, an alfalfa patch, lovely flower.

Montana is all these things and then some.

It's home to six hundred thousand people and there's room for six hundred thousand more.

Any more questions?

CLASS HISTORY

Upon entering the halls of HHS, the Class of '61 was set for three big years of success and leadership. Under the guidance of our outstanding officers, Dru Dougherty, Art Hulett, Karen Baucus, Ilene Barney, and Peter Lanthorn, our class began to pave its way to a successful future.

The sophomore dance "Magic Moments," sparkled with success. Ours had the biggest turn out of any sophomore dance held at HHS.

Emme Austin and Shirley Hart got many admiring stares from envious juniors and seniors at the Vigilante Coronation.

The athletic ability of the class was represented by varsity players Ken Leland, Chuck Green, and Jim Whipple. Our class, also, boasted ten girls to be accepted in "H" club, an achievement seldom obtained by a sophomore.

As Juniors, we continued our outstanding record of accomplishments.

Ours was the first class to participate in the American Field Service program. Dru Dougherty was selected to represent the United States in Argentina. Mary Kay McEacheron spent the summer in Germany.

The fabulous Junior Prom unfolded all the splendor of "Arabian Nights." Everyone formed a procession behind our officers; Jim Whipple, Peter Lanthorn, Shirley Hart, Marilyn Gibson, and Russ Williams, for the Grand March.

We were well represented at Girls' State by the many abilities of Karen Baucus, Nicole Eveland, and Mary Lou Bieri.

Judy Buckland and Nikki Eveland dazzeled the spectators at the coronation. We were proud of our glittering candidates.

The wild and woolly Senior Barn Dance was a tremendous kickoff for our last year. Butch Nachtsheim was crowned Queen Bruceve after competing with western beauties Char Rudio, Connie Bardon, and Sally Neath.

Of our three beautiful queen candidates, Emme Austin, Nikki Eveland, Claudia Cartens, Emme Austin was crowned. A regal personality, Emme ruled the school for a "year and a day" with charm and efficiency.

Karen McKindree and Zigmundt Smigaj were finalists in the National Merit tests, truly an honor for our class.

Thanks go to our officers, Russ Williams, Butch Natchsheim, Sally Kind, Bill Roberts, and Peter Lanthorn, for making this last year the best "ever."

Our excellent Honor Roll and our accomplishments in all fields labels us as being an exceptional class; a class that HHS will miss. We will miss HHS, also.

DRU DOUGHERTY
Scholastic Average 5.00

VALEDICTORIAN

Erudite Dru Dougherty should be proud of his school record. That he maintained a 5.00 average labels him an outstanding student. That he was a Class President, Rotary representative, and a Foreign Exchange student, points to his leadership qualities and to his magnetic personality. That he was a member of Honor Society, Latin Club, and the Forensic League, shows him to be versatile. This unusual record could only be the product of an exceptional person — and Dru Dougherty is one.

SALUTATORIAN

An industrious and brilliant student, Judy, has accomplished much during her high school years. An avid scientist, she is the proud winner of the "1960 State Science Fair." She placed third in the National Science Fair. Judy is a talented violinist. She plays in the school orchestra and has received high ratings at the state music meets. Judy, also, is in Student Council, Honor Society, Latin Club, Science Club, and Pep Club.

In Memoriam

Russ Williams

Marvin Keck

Of such as they were, there be few on earth,

Of such as they are, there be few in Heaven;

And life is all the sweeter that they lived,

And all they loved more sacred for their sake:

And death is all the brighter that they died,

And Heaven is all the happier that they are there.

JUNIOR BOARD

We, the class of 1962 again showed ourselves to be an outstanding group of students. We progressed from inexperienced sophomores to wiser Juniors, and we are enthusiastic about making our Senior year the best ever.

Again we claimed the honor of having a member of our class in the Royal Court; pretty Lee Morgan was elected Princess Vigilante. The boys proved themselves in sports, and many Junior boys earned letters in the five major sports.

We elected three active girls and three versatile boys as delegates to Girl's State and Boy's State. The boys, elected were Bob Coltrane, Jerry Cooper, Bob Hoffman, Kent Kushar, Rod Kovick, Gary Anderson, Doug Skor, Art Cranmer. The girls elected were Joyce Bjorgum, Nancy Bridges, and Adela Wilkinson.

Ina Bjoin and Bill Hakes were foreign exchange students to Mexico.

The Junior Prom will go down in the history of H.H.S. as one of the best ever held. The theme was sea mist, and many Juniors spent long hours contributing to its success.

As our Junior year closes we will remember it with fond memories, and we will often think of the good times we spent.

Our thanks is extended to our very able class sponsors, Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Wadley and Mr. Voiles.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

We, the class of '63, entered the Helena Senior High School in the fall of 1960 with the opinion that we would be the best class in the school's history. We found from experience and time that there were other classes that felt this way. But, since then, we have done many things that have recognized us as a class of honesty, personality, and leadership.

We were off at a fast pace with our officers; Bob Olson, Bob Anderson, Janet Burr, Mary Kay Williams, and Gary Coltrane, leading us.

We elected pretty Tanya McGaffick, and animated Jeanne Andre as our princess candidates. We were proud to have them represent us in the coronation.

We admire the athletic accomplishments of our boys and girls; especially Bob Anderson, a high point in basket ball; and Susan Little, rated one of the best skiers in the state.

Our class had one of the largest percentages in the Vigilante Parade. We are pleased with the many awards we received.

Looking over our acheivements and accomplishments we are proud, and we are anxious to do better in the coming years.

We wish to thank our sponsors, Mrs. Williams, Mr. Annala, and Mr. Dekam, for making this successful year possible.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE NOMINEES

Kent Kushar, Sue Kenny, Sandra Verzuh, Alexander Swaney, Joyce Bjorgum, Doug Skor.

The American Field Service program was introduced in the spring of 1959. The purpose of this organization is to "increase understanding and friendship among the people's of the world, by giving American teenagers the opportunity to live with families in a foreign land."

The school can select six applicants for this honor. From these, this non-profit organization picks the lucky students. If chosen, one is expected to uphold America's standard of conduct and to promote America's prestige abroad.

To be eligible one must: be at least 16 years of age, have studied a foreign language, be a member in good standing of the study body of a school which has an A.F.S. foreign student during the current academic year, be a member of the Junior class, be a U. S. citizen, have an excellent academic record, and be in excellent health.

Last year Dru Dougherty was selected to go to Argentina. Mary Kay McEacheron went to Germany. Each loved his country and found the trip to be an unforgettable and very profitable experience. Each hopes to return to his adopted home in the near future.

In the fall of 1960 of the six above candidates, Doug Skor was chosen to go to Denmark. He will leave in June and will remain until next January. He will attend school during his stay.

Mr. Weaver, chairman of the A.F.S. chapter, initiated the program in Helena. Louise Williams has worked hard as co-ordinator for the past two years.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Mineo Orito

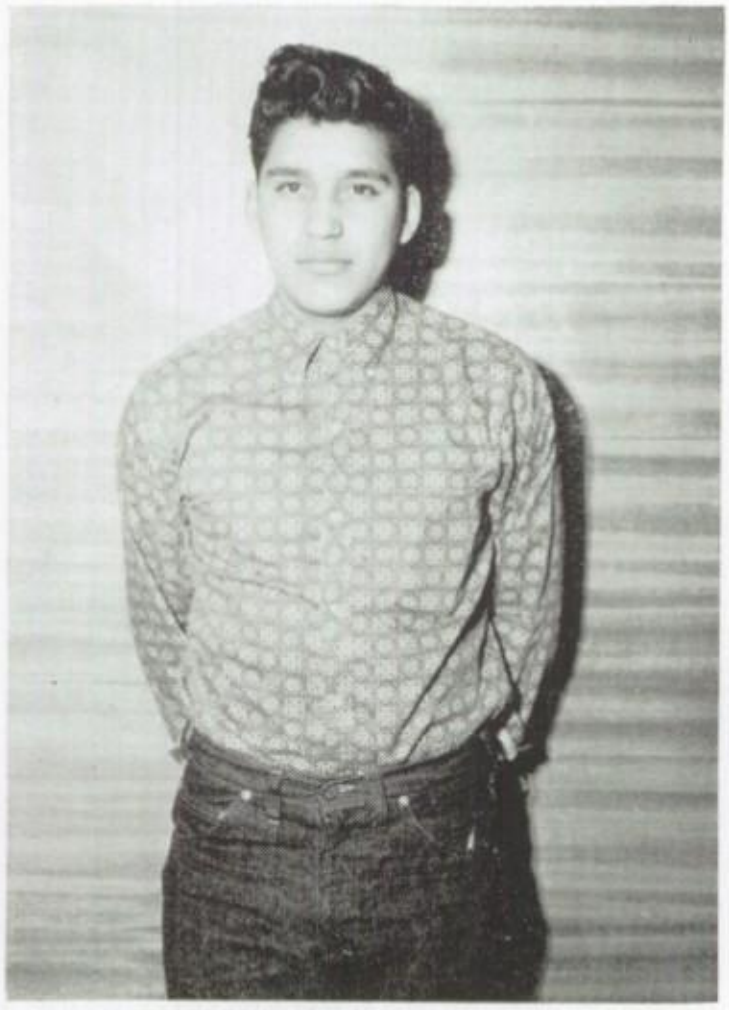
Mineo Orito, under the American Field Service, was an exchange student from Japan. His quiet mannerly attitude made him well liked by all. A conscientious and observant person he worked hard to learn much about the American people and their customs. He surprised the students by learning to speak English as a native. An excellent student he maintained almost a straight "A" average. He could not understand American's nonchalance towards their studies. "In Japan a person's school record determines his future life," he often said. Every HHS student will remember this reserved Japanese boy with fondness, and few will forget the wisdom of his words.

Mineo sells ticket to "Oklahoma" to Julie Long.

Mineo and Dru Dougherty exchange news between classes. Mineo stayed with the Dougherty's during his stay in the United States.

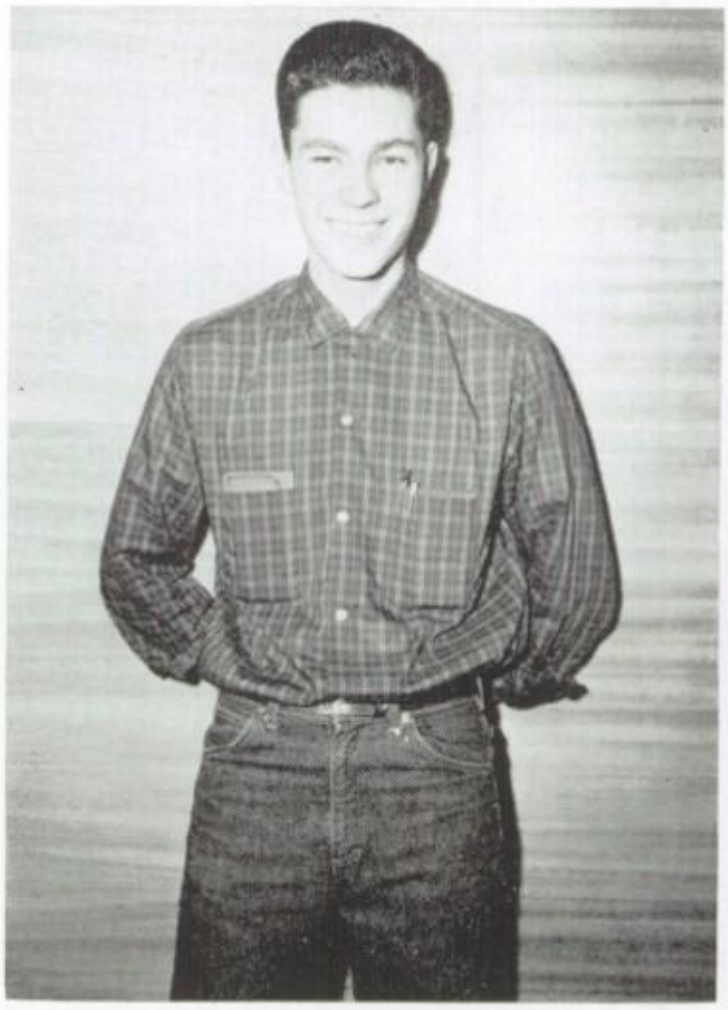
Mineo, playing baseball, is prepared to catch the next hit.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS



HUMBERTO TORRES

Humberto is from Parras Coah, Mexico. A friendly, industrious boy, he has enjoyed his stay in Helena and hopes to return again soon.



RAMON DE LA PENA

Ramon is from Spitillo Coahuilo, Mexica. He found H.H.S. "easier than his school in Mexico, but had lots of fun."

The persons on this page are not sponsored by the American Field Service Program.

MISS ROXBOROUGH

Miss Roxborough, from England, taught physical education in our school. She won the love and respect of all her students.
